Rules & Regulations

SIZE LIMITATIONS

Artworks may not exceed 1m x 1m in size or weigh more than 30kg.

INSURANCE

Although all precautions to protect artworks from harm will be taken, please make sure that your artworks are insured at your own cost.

We do not take responsibility for any loss or damage to artworks. This includes theft, breakage, courier damage, or damage during exhibition setup and display.

COURIER & DELIVERY

Selected artworks must be delivered or couriered to the confirmed venue at the artist's own expense.

All unsold artworks must be collected by the courier service or representative arranged by the artist, no later than one week after the exhibition has ended.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is not mandatory. However, your entry fee includes one ticket to the opening night and we encourage you to invite friends and family members to help ensure a successful exhibition.

COMMISSION FEE

A 10% commission fee will be charged on all artwork sales. All submitted artworks must be available for sale.

ALLOWED TOPICS & THEME

The theme is “Something Blue”, the artwork should either feature shades of blue or have blue as a dominant visual element. For examples a blue flower, bird, dragon, etc.

All artworks must be child-friendly, as we have a selective group of children also participating. Artworks that depict violence, nudity, offensive language, or hate speech will automatically be disqualified

WHO MAY PARTICIPATE

Minimum age 18+

You must be a South African citizen or currently residing in South Africa

ENTRY FEE

The entry fee is R250 and allows submission of up to three artworks.

Payment of the entry fee does not guarantee participation in the exhibition, as space is limited, artworks will be curated and selected based on quality and suitability to the exhibition theme.
